Criterion I : Curricular Aspects

2022-23

Higher education is developing very fast in basic as well as professional areas. Women's education is a matter of concern even today. To educate women our Institute envisages academic programmes by considering the need of society, Industry and the service sect. While preparing the perspective plan thought is given to accommodating girls in existing programmes and new academic programmes. The human resource of the Institute is rewardingly helping the students in achieving the mission and objectives of our institute. Therefore, Staff training to improve the teaching-learning process is also an area of concern. Research, extension activities, and student extracurricular programmes must be revived.

About Department

As a branch of Social Science in the Faculty of Humanities, Economics is an important department in Smt. Radhadevi Goenka College for Women, Akola. The Economics Department started with the establishment of the college in 1965. Since 17-12-1979 Dr S. K. Mankar had been working as the Head of the Department of Economics. On 27-08-1981, Dr Y.P. Singh joined the department. After this, on 31-08-2014 Dr Sulochana Mankar retired and the charge of Head of the Department was handed over to Dr Y P Singh. On 28-02-2017 Dr Y P Singh joined as Principal, at Murtizapur. From 20 Sept. 2019, Dr Nitiin D. Chaudhari has been appointed as Assistant Professor & Head of the Department.

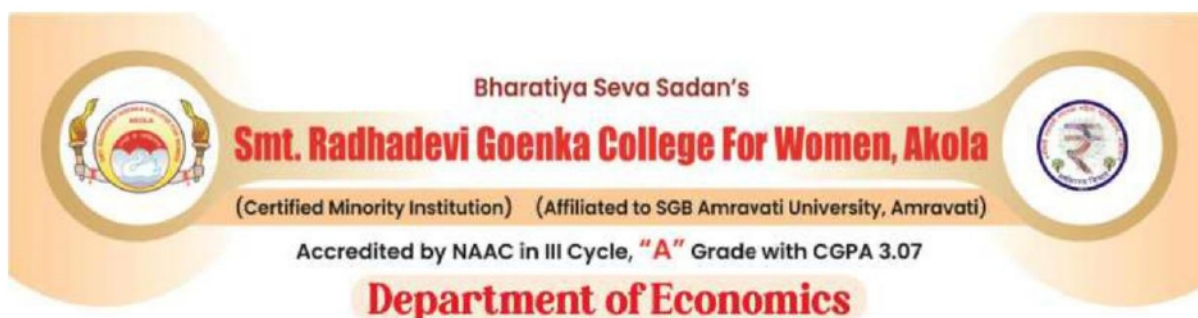

Vision

To provide opportunities for students to realise their full potential and guide them to become leaders and entrepreneurs.

Mission

To provide Various platforms that will promote creative skills and enhance decision-making abilities, which will help the students to become economically stable.

Criterion I : Curricular Aspects

Objective

- To make the student familiar with the basic Principles, Law and important concepts of Economic theory.
- To acquaint the students with understanding the structure and problems of our changing Indian Economy.
- To develop an awareness amongst the students about socio-economic problems.
