Study Visit at 'Muktagiri'

Dt. 16/10/2016

Session: 2016-2017

Report of educational trip to Seemadoh and Muktagiri

Under the guidance of Hon'ble Dilipraj Goenka, President of Bharatiya Sevasadan, Hon. Ravi Babu Goenka, Secretary Alok Babu Goenka and Principal Dr. Anjali Rajwade educational trip was organized.

Under the leadership of Dr. Vinod Khaire, Head of Political Science Department and Prof. Ajay Shingade, Head of Philosophy, an educational trip was organized at Seemadoh-Tribal Project and Muktagiri-Jain Dharmasthal on 16/10/2016.

On this occasion, Sunil Mavale, Mrs. Lata Joshi was present.

College students need physical knowledge along with actual natural learning in the vicinity of the environment.

The study of philosophy of various religions in India is not possible only through books, it is necessary to understand their philosophy by visiting actual religious places.

An educational trip was organized at Muktagiri for the purpose of studying the various teachings of Mahavira.

To know the diversity of Indian society, it is important to know the traditions of the tribal community. Seema Doh was a project of the Government of Maharashtra to bring the tribal communities into the mainstream.

The selected 42 students of BA first year, second and third year decided to visit Muktagiri and Seema Doh.

All the students gathered at the college premises at 8 am.

Dr. Vinod Khaire Prof. Ajay Shingade, Sunil Mavale, Mrs. Lata Joshi, the entire team left for the trip in an atmosphere of excitement.

First of all, students from 52 Jain temples studied at Muktagiri. Prof. Shingade explained to the students that the principles of truth, non-violence and peace are needed in Jainism. Seemadoh is a remote area surrounded by natural beauty.

The students learned about various activities during their visit to the projects for the development of the tribal community.

Criterion I : Curricular Planning and Implementation

The enthusiasm of the students remained throughout the entire educational trip.

The students arrived at the college at seven in the evening.

For the success of the trip, Principal Dr. Anjali Rajwade, Prof. Dr. Vinod Khaire, Prof. Ajay Shingade, Sunil Mavale, Mrs. Lata Joshi and Mrs. Dipti Joshi. were take efforts hardly.
